Parkside Lending head takes reins at CMBA

Home News

by Ryan Smith | 01 Sep 2016

The head of Parkside Lending has been elected to as chairman of the California Mortgage Bankers Association.

Matthew Ostrander, co-founder, majority owner, chairman and CEO of Parkside Lending, was inducted as CMBA chairman at the association's recent Western Secondary Conference.

Ostrander had just completed serving a term as the CMBA's president of residential real estate. He's also served a term as CMBA secretary. Prior to that, he'd served as a director for the CMBA board since 2010. Ostrander is also a member of the Freddie Mac and MBA Independent Mortgage Bankers Advisory Board and a member of Freddie Mac's Regional Lending Advisory Board. He also serves as president and chairman of the board for Parkside Mortgage Trust REIT.
