Matthew Ostrander, CEO of Parkside Lending, a national wholesale and correspondent lender, is now a member of Freddie Mac's Regional Lending Advisory Board (RLAB).

"By sitting on the RLAB, I'll be well positioned to bring Parkside Lending's 'power of caring' to the forefront of our discussions," Ostrander says in a release. "The insights we provide Freddie Mac not only benefit the industry, but also the customers we serve. I am honored to have been selected to join the RLAB."

Ostrander co-founded Parkside Lending in 2004. He and his management team successfully navigated the mortgage deterioration of 2007-2008 and have grown the company to become a well-known national wholesale lending platform.
