Parkside Lending Announces VA Loan Programs
Designed and Delivered by VA experts

San Francisco, Calif., April 11, 2017 – Parkside Lending, a national wholesale and correspondent lender, announces it is now offering VA Home Loan programs.

“We’re excited that we can now partner with mortgage professionals to help eligible service men and women, veterans and their families become homeowners with a VA home loan from Parkside Lending,” stated Matt Ostrander, CEO at Parkside Lending. “Our program takes a commonsense approach to underwriting whereby we review each veteran’s individual situation while making sensible loans.”

Seasoned team of VA underwriters that know how to navigate nuances of VA

Parkside Lending’s team has an exceptional level of VA expertise – some with more than 40 years of experience. The program is led by Linda Jacopetti, Parkside’s Head of Underwriting and Government Operations, who has leveraged a proven track record of building VA programs from the ground up to design Parkside’s VA program. Marcy Neves, Government Underwriting Manager at Parkside Lending, is the most-tenured underwriter in the VA system and leads Parkside’s VA underwriting team.

VA Home Loan Program highlights include:

- Cash out up to $200,000
- Max loan amount $1.5MM
- Min FICO 620 (700 FICO over $1MM)
- No DTI cap (subject to VA requirements and compensating factors apply)

IRRRL Program Highlights (Interest Rate Reduction Refinance Loan Program)

- No AVM or appraisals on owner-occupied primary residence transactions
- Pay off existing VA loan plus closing costs and funding fees
